ORDER IS RESTORED
General Strike Called, Adding to Seriousness of Situation.

London, March 17.—Fifteen persons were killed at Nairobi, British East Africa, in disorders that followed the arrest of an Indian agitator, Governor Kenya reported to the Colonial office this afternoon.

Unofficial press dispatches put the number of dead at twenty.

The government troops sustained no casualties.

Order has been restored it was officially announced.

Mobs of thousands of persons surged about the police station at Nairobi. Soldiers fired upon the rioters.

A general strike has been called adding to the seriousness of the situation. The police charged the mobs and a battle developed in which thirty persons were wounded.

The king's African rifles, a crack military unit was called out and charged the natives with drawn bayonets, according to a later Reuter dispatch from Nairobi.

The natives paraded the streets, putting their women relatives in the front ranks to prevent the soldiers from shooting.

The European element of the population is in terror.

PRESIDENT SPENDS LAST DAY OF TRIP ON THE GOLF LINKS

St. Augustine, Fla., March 17.—The knotty domestic problems that he will have to solve when he gets back to Washington were thrust aside today by President Harding as he motored away from his hotel here for a full day on the links.

The presidential vacation has about come to an end and in anticipation the long hours of work that lie ahead of him in the national capital, Mr. Harding plunged into his golf game today with the idea of shutting everything else out of his mind except keeping his score down to where he would be bashful about letting his friends see the careful tabulation which he keeps of every shot.

The week that he has spent on the links under Florida's shining sunshine has greatly improved the president's physical condition, and Brig. Gen. Sawyer, the White House physician said today that the executive would be in tip top shape to tackle his job again next week. The vacation party—the Hardings, Gen. Sawyer, Attorney General Daugherty, Speaker Gillett and Secretary Christian—accede to leave St. Augustine tomorrow for Washington.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATION HELD

Columbus, March 17.—The biggest St. Patrick's day celebration occurring here in many years is taking place today.

The program, carried out under the auspices of the sons and daughters of Erin, is featured by commemoration of the signing of the Irish peace treaty and the launching of the Irish free state.

Escorted by policemen and headed by the American legion band, divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians rifles company marched from their hall, 119 1-2 So. High street, this morning to St. Joseph's Cathedral, East Broad street, where solemn high mass was celebrated.

At memorial hall tonight, a program will be given, including a chorus of 125 singers, representing all the local Catholic choirs. There will be addresses, Irish songs and dances and a one-act comedy sketch entitled, "Spreading the news."

IMPORTED WHISKEY AND MEN SEIZED

New York, March 17.—Four thousand cases of imported whiskey valued at $500,000, a two masted schooner, a big moving van, two touring cars and 24 prisoners were seized early today by the special service squad of the customs service in spectacular raids on an abandoned pier at the foot of East Tenth street, the Bronx.

POLICE STATION IS NOT DAY NURSERY

Huntington, W. Va., March 17.—Police station is no baby nursery. The edict was issued today when howling infants, parked in their cabs in the police station court yard disturbed police court.

The infants left there by mothers who were on shopping expeditions, refused to be quieted by the police who offered them moonshine stills, black jacks and pistols to play with. A protest on the part of mothers followed the edict.

MINERS SPEED NEGOTIATIONS FOR DECISION

Anthracite Workers at Work For Early Settlement.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17.—Suspension of mining operations in both the bituminous and anthracite coal fields of the county is inevitable, it was declared today by William Green, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers.

Nation-wide suspension will take place April 1, he forecast in a statement upon the operators.

New York, March 17.—Anthracite miners determined today on a program of speed in negotiations with the operators for adjustment of the hard coal differences. The call has gone out from international and district leaders to settle down at once to a discussion of the important wage scale issues.

The purpose back of it is to aid the bituminous mine workers in forcing soft coal operators into conferences with the men they now refuse to meet.

International President John L. Lewis, and Vice President Phil Murray admitted today that a solution of the anthracite problem before April 1, will have a highly beneficial effect upon the bituminous case and place in the hands of the miners a valuable weapon of defense and offense.

Washington, March 17.—Financial support for the United Mine Workers will be forthcoming from the American Federation of Labor after the walkout scheduled for April, according to views in labor circles, today, following the announcement of Samuel Gompers, the federation president, that the entire American labor movement would back the soft coal miners.

"The cause of the miners is just," Gompers said, "and in that just cause they will have the united and unswerving support of organized labor."

THREAT OF WAR IS MENACING ULSTER

London, March 17.—Threat of war is again hovering over the Ulster province frontiers in Belfast according to dispatch from Belfast to the Evening News today. The House of Commons was today formed to carry on friendly negotiations between the military forces of Ulster and the Irish free state has been dissolved.

Preparations are being made by the Ulsterites to meet armed invasion from the south.

BIG ST. PATRICK'S PARADE IS STAGED

New York, March 17.—With fair cold weather prevailing, the friends of Ireland in New York today staged the greatest St. Patrick's Day celebration in the history of the city. The fact that the Irish aspirations for freedom is an accomplished fact for the first St. Patrick's Day in seven centuries increased the rejoicing to unbounded limits.

FORMER EMPLOYE OF BRUNEN QUESTIONED

Mount Holly, N. J., March 17.—George L. Werner, formerly employed as a cook by John T. Brunen, circus owner, who was mysteriously shot to death a week ago, was questioned by the authorities today to ascertain if he knew anything of the crime. Werner was not arrested, however.

ORGANIZATION EFFECTED BY KENNEDY COMPANY

W. J. Kennedy has been elected president of the new Kennedy Grocery Co., which has incorporated for $10,000 at its organization meeting recently.

N. E. Osman, was elected vice-president of the new company and R. E. Dunkle was named secretary and treasurer. These officers, with Henry Dunkle and Harry Moore, composed the board of directors.

The Kennedy Co., was organized to operate a chain of grocery stores, three of which are now established here. Two more stores in the Kennedy chain will be located in this city soon, it is announced.

BOY MURDERER BIDS MOTHER FAREWELL.

John McHenry bids mother farewell.

Washington, March 17.—John McHenry, the 22-year-old Washington youth was hanged in the district jail at 10 o'clock this morning for the murder of a Washington garage owner and a policeman.

Hope that there would be an eleventh hour reprieve for McHenry, was abandoned, this morning and officials of the district jail made preparations to hang the youth before noon.

President Harding from his vacation retreat in Florida refused to intervene.

Chief Justice McCoy, in district supreme court denied a further reprieve at 10 o'clock this morning. The youth was born with a mania to kill and commit other criminal acts, he declared and has been unable to fight off this strange affliction. President Harding told his mother that he could not stay the execution. Here McHenry is shown bidding his mother a last farewell.

SOLDIER BONUS PROBLEM AGAIN BACK WITH PRESIDENT HARDING

Republican House Leaders Declare They Can Do No More
Until They Have Conferred With Chief Executive on the Matter.

Washington, March 17.—The soldier bonus problem is back again today with President Harding.

After twenty-four hours of doubt, indecision and battling with baffling cross currents in the house, the Republican leaders determined today, they could do no more until they shall have conferred with the president and heard at first hand his decision.

They will go to the White House, Mondell, Fordney, Longworth and others, just as soon as the president will receive them following his return from Florida. They hope he will accept the bonus plan that has been presented to the house by an overwhelming favorable vote from the ways and means committee.

If he rejects there seems no way but postponement and despair for the November elections will follow such action.

The leaders see no hope in a conference of house Republicans that has been demanded by bonus advocates. Rep. Townier, Iowa, chairman of the Republican caucus, has their demand.

"They can order me to call a conference," he commented today, "but I can set the date for it. There will be a conference with President Harding as soon as he gets back. It may be there will be no need for further conferences."

The proposed conference was promoted by Rep. Lineberger, Republican, California, advocate of a sales tax to pay a cash soldier bonus. The ways and means committee wrestled along with the tax problem and abandoned it finally. It is stated that no tax plan can get through the house.

Framers of the proposed bonus legislation by which without extra taxation, the soldiers can get a bonus and immediate money to meet their needs, it grew out of the general house demand for bonus legislation and the conflicting conditions imposed by the president, and there should be no cash bonus without a sales tax and the house position there should be a bonus and not a tax.

THREE ARE DEAD IN SHOOTING AFFRAY

Huntington, W. Va., March 17.—Three are dead and one dying as the result of shooting affrays and accidents in this vicinity in the twenty-four hours ending last midnight. H. A. Innman, 43, Kellogg, was killed and Delbert Gibson, 25, West Huntington fatally hurt when a shale car overturned on a trestle at the Huntington brick and tile plant late yesterday.

ARBUCKLE JURY CHOSEN COURT ADJOURNS FRIDAY

San Francisco, Cal., March 17.—The 12 jurors who will sit in judgment in the trial of Roscoe C. ("Fatty") Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge, growing out of the death of Virginia Rappe, were chosen as Court adjourned last night on the fourth day of the trial. Four women are on the jury.

Two alternates, who will sit with the jury throughout the trial to replace any who should become ill or otherwise incapacitated, will be chosen Saturday. Court adjourning last night over today because of Friday—St. Patrick's Day—being a legal holiday.

Taking of testimony probably will be begun next Monday.

LOYD GEORGE NOT TO RESIGN WITHOUT FIGHT

Premier Will Give Battle
To Tory "Die Hards" It Is Reported.

IS NOW CONFIDENT

Will Remain at Retreat In Wales Until April 2 for a Rest.

Criccieth, Wales, March 17.—Despite London reports to the contrary there is every indication today that Premier Lloyd George will not resign but will give battle to the Tory "die hards" who are opposing him in the coalition party. For the time being the premier has dismissed all thoughts of resignation from his mind and is preparing for the Genoa conference where he hopes to build up his political prestige anew.

The premier is understood to have remarked to a dinner guest that he believed it was impossible for any political party to obtain a working majority in the house of commons without him. Therefore, he was looking to the future with considerable confidence.

Lloyd George, however, is not talking of politics in a careless manner. Most of the guests at his vacation retreat say that he is willing to talk freely of fishing and golf but maintains silence upon political topics.

Unless his plans are disrupted the premier will remain in Criccieth until April 2 when he will return to London for a few days before going to Genoa. Mr. Lloyd George is confident that he will be able to put through a program at Genoa which will be of great benefit to Britain commercially.

PRIZES AWARDED IN SCHOOL CONTEST FOR NEWS ARTICLES

Miss Alicia Monroe, junior at Central High School, won first prize in the contest conducted among students for articles to be used in the school edition of the Gazette and Republican, published last week to go in the corner stone of the new Central High building.

Thirty-eight students competed in the contest held for the best articles on different departments of the school and the ten best of the articles submitted, were used in the special supplement. From the writers of these ten articles, two prize winners were selected, Miss Monroe taking the first prize, while Clark Eckerle, also a member of the junior class, was the second prize winner.

School authorities complimented the contestants on the quality of the material that was submitted in the contest. Many of the articles, including the ten selected by faculty heads as the best, were considered well developed examples of English composition, and although the youthful writers were not trained to journalistic style, they adopted a newspaper form largely in composing their articles.

The subjects of the ten best articles and their authors, were as follows: Mathematics, Miss Alicia Monroe, Class of '23; Athletics, Clark Eckerle, '23; Social Science, William McCormick, '22; Latin, Miss Alma Mendenhall, '22; Science, Leslie Moore, '23; Industrial Arts, Robert Ballentyne, '23; Commercial, Miss Ethel Beals, '23; Home Economics, Miss Ruth Charters, '23; English, Miss Eleanor Kiernan, '22; Modern Language, Miss Mildred Sutton, '23.

Official Announcement To Be Made Saturday at Columbus.

Columbus, March 17.—Both affirmative and negative guesses are being made here today by political wisecracks as to whether Governor Davis, in his official announcement, schedule to be made here, tomorrow will declare his intention to be a candidate for re-nomination.

If the political wind counts for anything as good a guess as any would be that the governor will run for re-nomination. This guess is based upon the fact that some of the politicians here who, a few days ago, were predicting that the governor would decline to run again, have reversed their position following conferences here between the governor and Carmi A. Thompson, of Cleveland, former secretary of state; George H. Clark, Canton, chairman of the public state executive committee; and K. Hynicka, Cincinnati, national committeeman; Secretary of State Smith and Walter F. Brown Toledo.

Mention is made here of W. H. Boyd, Cleveland, as a possible candidate for the republican nomination for U. S. senator. Attorney Boyd was a delegate at large to the Republican national convention two years ago.

SOLDIERS ARE ORDERED TO STOP INTERFERING

Cincinnati, March 17.—Colonel H. H. Denhardt and other national guard officers on duty at Newport, Ky., in connection with a strike at the Newport Rolling Mill, late yesterday, were ordered by Judge A. M. Caldwell to stop interfering with the men. As soon as a temporary injunction was granted to the strikers the question arose as to the right of a county court to interfere with the work of state troops sent to the city by the "governor" to "maintain order at all costs."

YOUNG DODGE SENTENCED TO FIVE DAYS IN JAIL

Detroit, Mich., March 17.—Five days in jail, a fine of $100 and revocation of driver's license for one year was meted out to John Duval Dodge, son of the millionaire automobile manufacturer, by Judge Charles L. Bartlett in Recorder's Court late yesterday on a charge of speeding.

The judge in announcing the sentence intimated that contempt proceedings might be instituted against young Dodge for not having appeared before the Court at two o'clock as originally ordered.

DAVIS AUTHORIZES PURCHASE OF GAME PRESERVE FOR OHIO

State to Buy 15,000 Acres
In Scioto County for $75,000.

Columbus, March 17.—For purposes of a game preserve, public shooting ground and for reforestation, the state will purchase 15,000 acres of woodland in Scioto County for $75,000 in compliance with instructions issued by Governor Davis.

In buying 10,000 acres, state director of agriculture Taber expects to use money from the hunters license fund. An adjoining tract of 5,000 acres is to be bought by the board of control of the Wooster experiment station, using funds appropriated by state legislature a year ago through the Silver reforestation act.

The original timber has been cut off of the 15,000 acres.

MILLIONS TAKEN FROM RAIL CARS

Buffalo, N. Y., March 17.—Thefts of merchandise from New York Central railroad cars on an enormous scale, resulted in the indictment by a federal grand jury of railroad detectives, saloon keepers, chauffeurs and farmers.

They are alleged to have made up a ring of thieves and fences that handled goods worth $2,000,000 a year, for the last three years. Thirty four indictments were returned.

Whiskey and alcohol comprised the chief loot of the ring during the year it was said by Peter J. Bently, New York, special attorney for the New York Central.

INCREASE IN FARM PRICES WHOLESALE

Washington, March 17.—The high cost of living is coming down very slowly. The retail cost of food was three tenths of one per cent lower in February than it was in January, according to figures made public today by the department of labor.

While the retail figures were reaching this point wholesale prices showed a "distinct upward trend" according to the department's announcement which showed that there was a gain of 2 per cent over the level of January. The increase was most pronounced among farm products and foodstuffs.

Some of the more pronounced decreases in retail food prices in February were evaporated milk, fresh milk, oleomargarine, strictly fresh eggs, bread and some canned foods.

Sixteen articles increased in price during the month, the most important, being onions.

"BUTCHER OF FAR EAST" TO BE DENIED ENTRANCE

Washington, March 17.—The opinion that Gregory Semenov Ataman of the Russian Cossacks and alleged "butcher of the far east" would be denied admission to the United States by the board of inquiry which will act upon his case at Vancouver, B. C., was expressed today by officials of the immigration service.

Although the state department has declared that it has no objections to Semenov's admission to this country, it was stated that the famous anti-bolshevik general has no diplomatic standing and that he will be looked upon in the same light as any Russian immigrant.

WEARS SHOES SIX YEARS

Elyria, March 17.—Alberta Bel-Lorain, seeking a divorce from the bolshevik general has no diplomatic standing and that he will be looked upon in the same light as any Russian immigrant.

BUDGET AGENTS WORRIED OVER PROPOSED PLAN

High Costs of Operation for Enforcement to Cause Trouble.

SHIPS TRANSFERRED

Sub Chasers are Loaned to Volstead Officials for Work.

Washington, March 17.—High costs of operation threatened today to jam the highly touted prohibition "navy" on the financial rocks. Budget officers were plainly agast over the huge sum enforcement officials propose to spend to maintain a fleet of sub-chasers hunting rum smugglers. Fear that the dry fleet plans may run counter to President Harding's warning against bureau deficits may break up the entire prohibition "navy" scheme.

Commander W. E. Reynolds, of the coast guard, declared today that mine sub-chasers transferred by the navy, were loaned to prohibition commissioner Haynes' organization but that enforcement authorities will assume the entire responsibility for manning the sub chasers fleet and of paying for its operation. None of the coast guards personnel, will be assigned for duty with the dry "fleet" Commander Reynolds said.

He said Lieut. R. T. Tach had not been made admiral of the dry fleet. So far as could be learned today the dry flag has not been hoisted above a single one of the nine boats transferred. It may be weeks or even months before technical and financial details in connection with the use of the vessels for liquor law enforcement can be perfected.

Sub-chasers loaned to Volstead law enforcement officials are each 110 feet in length, equipped with 200 horsepower, triple expansion engines and normally carry a crew of 27 men. Officials today estimated that cost of running this fleet continuously through one year would involve an expenditure of about $500,000. This does not allow for depreciation. The boats each cost the navy $75,000. As a result of wear and tear on the equipment of the vessels, they must undergo overhauling every six months at considerable cost. This would involve an outlay of government funds not less than $150,000 annually. The cost of food and pay for the members of crews for a single year would be about $300,000 for the nine vessels.

Discovery was made today that the appropriations allowed to the treasury department for enforcing the Volstead act, are running very low and with four more months remaining of the present fiscal year officials of the treasury were not able to say how the prohibition "navy" can be kept going, even for a short period, without ample funds. The vessels loaned are gasoline burners and eat up an enormous volume of both gasoline and oil. They were dispensed with by the navy because of their costliness.

Meanwhile prohibition officers went ahead with a plan to recruit crews for the boats.

LIQUOR IS SEIZED

Miami, Fla., March 17.—Concealed by crates of tomatoes, cabbages and grapefruit, liquor valued at $34,398 was seized here and at Fort Pierce today from freight cars by prohibition officers. No arrests were made.

Four hundred and thirty seven cases of liquor, the agents said, were taken from a car at Fort Pierce. Several shots were fired in a twenty minute rough and tumble fight between the raiders and the combined crews of the ship and the automobiles. It is the biggest single seizure made by the authorities since the prohibition law went into effect here.

According to the custom men, the schooner is a boat known as the "Viking" which has been long sought as a rum runner. The work "Viking" was found to have been painted out and the name "Clara" substituted. The "Viking" home port is Gloucester, Mass.

SPLIT BETWEEN ITALY AND CHURCH PATCHED

New York, March 17.—The ceremonies in Rome at the installation of Pope Pius XI should remove the last suspicion of a schism between church and state in Italy, Ambassador Ricci declared last night in an address before the Catholic Society of New York. The fact of his having been invited to speak before that body, he added, was evidence strong in support of the hope that the "legends" of the past were finally to be obliterated.

XENIA GRAIN FIRM DEFENDANT IN SUIT ASKING DAMAGES

Claiming violation of a warranty contract, Frank A. Noyes, doing business as Noyes and Colby, of Massachusetts, has brought suit in Common Pleas Court against Arthur V. Perrill and C. H. Little, doing business as the Xenia Grain Co., asking damages in the sum of $2,354.89.

The petition states that the plaintiff and defendants entered into the contract Oct. 8, 1917, by which the defendant agreed to sell and the plaintiff agreed to buy two cars of Ohio yellow corn at $1.60 a bushel, freight paid, the defendant warranting the corn to be cool, sweet and in good condition. The plaintiff alleges that the corn on arrival at its destination was not in good condition but was sour and of no value but that the defendant refused to take possession of it, the plaintiff selling the corn at a loss, suffering damages in the amount named. H. C. Armstrong is attorney for the plaintiff.

POTATO CASE IN COURT

An agreement regarding the purchase of a small quantity of potatoes, reached Common Pleas Court, Thursday, when the case was carried up from the court of Oliver Watson, Justice of the Peace in Sugar Creek Township, on appeal. Nathan Linkhart, in his original action against Charles Kable, asked $34 damages alleging breach of contract. The plaintiff was given $20 damages and the costs in justice's court, and the defendant appealed the case.

WITHDRAWS FUNDS IS CHARGE

Rhoda M. Smith charges that The Home Building & Savings Co. refuses to pay a sum of money on deposit there, in her suit filed with Clerk of Courts Elam, Thursday. The plaintiff claims a deposit of $500, made Dec. 16, 1920, on which interest has been accruing at six per cent, ever since. The plaintiff alleges that she lost her certificate of deposit March 1, 1921, but on March 13, 1922 demanded payments and offered a $1,000 bond to indemnify the defendant company against loss but that the defendant alleged a dispute over the ownership of the certificate and refused to pay the sum. Attorney Frank L. Dean represents the plaintiff.

St. Patrick's Day Finds Ireland Under Control of Irish People For First Time In Period of 7 Hundred Years

Dublin, March 16.—St. Patrick's day this year finds Ireland under control of the Irish people for the first time in centuries. Though political views of the Irish people differ there is general rejoicing over the newly-won freedom. The International News Service herewith presents St. Patrick's day messages to the American people from leaders representing all shades of public opinion.

Michael Collins, Minister of finance in the Irish provisional government:

"This year finds Ireland shaking off the strangle hold of English domination. Hitherto our work was to shake off England's grip. Now our work is to build up the Irish nation. We take up the work with the same

FARMERS ENDORSE PLAN TO TAKE OVER ELEVATOR AT MEET

The proposed action of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation in taking over the terminal elevator at Cleveland, was endorsed by the representatives of ten county farm bureaus at a meeting held in Wilmington, Thursday.

It is the proposal of the State Farm Bureau to take over the elevator, with the view of gaining possession of a central market and in time a centralized national market for their grain. Each of the eighty-eight counties of the state, will be proportioned about $2,500 worth of stock to be sold.

The action of the representatives at Wilmington, Thursday grew out of the step taken at Fostoria, Wednesday. The Farm Bureau will commence selling the stock in about a month, it is thought, since the matter is one that needs quick action.

Preceding the business meeting, M. D. Lincoln, state executive secretary of the Farm Bureau addressed the session, dealing with the general layout of the work of the state organization. The plans of the different counties concerning the elevator matter was brought out by Mr. Lincoln.

The morning session was presided over by W. B. Bryson, president of Greene County Farm Bureau. Representatives from this county were William Hardman, of Yellow Springs, J. F. Harshman, Frederick Flynn, Elmer Smith, Jamestown and James Hite, Bowersville.

The next meeting will be held in Hillsboro, the fourth week in April.

Below: Michael Collins

Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann and founder of the Sinn Fein: "Hitherto the national feast day each succeeding year found Ireland sinking further into ruins. This year there are signs everywhere of the substantial freedom which Ireland gains under the peace treaty. Henceforth Ireland's destiny is in the hands of the Irish people, who are determined to undo the ruin that has been wrought and build up a free and prosperous Ireland that our friends in the United States may look upon with pride. We are happy to express our appreciation to the American people of their support (of which we never despaired) and on St. Patrick's Day 1922, the hopes of the American people are beginning to be realized."

Countess Markiewicz, supporter of Eamonn De Valera, in his fight against the Irish treaty:

"St. Patrick's day this year finds Ireland facing a situation that will lay every nerve and fibre of those loyal to the republic. An organized army of Irish women have pledged their loyalty to the republic they love. No terrors will daunt them. They stand true to the tri-color and will do so until the republic takes her place among the sister nations."

Alice Stopford, the "green poetess" of the Irish women who supported the treaty: "There is but one voice in this country this St. Patrick's day. It is the praise of the women of Ireland whose patriotic experiences and comradeship in war will deeply affect the future life of the Irish nation."

Thomas Johnson, leader of the Irish labor party: "The St. Patrick's day message from the workers of America must be a plea that you shall demand the release of all Irish political prisoners and particularly the release of James Larkin, who is now serving time in a New York state prison."

Eamonn De Valera, refused to make a statement on the ground it might be construed as discourtesy to Griffith.

(Note: James Larkin was arrested in Brooklyn on the charge of having affiliations with a communist newspaper. Formerly he was one of the best known labor leaders in Dublin. He was a member of the transport workers.)

ACROBATICS NECESSARY IN MAMIE SMITH'S PLAY

Acrobatics are said to be a necessary qualification of each musician in Mamie Smith's Jazz Hounds, who appear with the famous Mamie herself, creator of jazz, at the Opera House, Saturday night, by arrangement with the Standard Amusement Co.

The Mamie Smith show is a really a variety performance with a high type of colored vaudeville, including rare comedy and novelty acts. But above all it is a presentation of modern jazz by members of the race that created that form of music.

A Dayton reviewer, who witnessed the performance when it played at the Victory three days in January, says that the jazz offered by Mamie Smith's troupe is not the blareful dance hall variety, but soft and moaning and wailing with the most intriguing syncopations.

XENIA HIGH WILL BE CRIPPLED WHEN THEY PLAY SATURDAY

That the Xenia Central High School basketball team will be crippled worse than it ever has been this season when it enters the annual county tournament at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Saturday, is gathered from statements made Friday afternoon by Coach Jerry Katherman.

The physician in charge of Donald Currie, star guard, who was injured in the game with Wilmington College, Wednesday night, has ordered him to remain out of the game Saturday. Although an X-Ray proved there are no broken bones, he is having much pain from strained ligaments.

Bob Gegner star forward, who has been out of the pastime more or less for more than a week, with a case of "pink-eye" will also hardly be able to play Saturday. His physician has advised him not to attempt to get in the games, although he will probably accompany the team and may be used if necessary, as he is anxious to break into the pastime. "Doc" Lones, who has been out of the game several weeks following illness, is also not considered in shape to play, although he will accompany the team. He has not had sufficient practice recently, but may have to be used.

With this condition of affairs, Coach Katherman will probably start Van-norsdall and either Yeakley or Douthett at the forwards, with Captain Boxwell at center, and Routledge and either Yeakley or Douthett as the guards. Witham and Arthur Currie will accompany the team as substitutes, and Coach Katherman says he believes his proteges will fight even harder on behalf of their crippled team-mates.

Antioch College students are said to be with Xenia in the big meet, and are betting that the blue and white five will win the cup, while Yellow Springs residents are taking these bets at two to one that Xenia will not come out on top. Anticipating much rooting against Xenia, especially if the locals survive to the finals, local people are expected to support the team by as large a crowd as possible at the tournament, especially during the finals, if the Xenia team survives.

Coach Katherman took his tossers to Yellow Springs Friday afternoon, where they practiced on the Kelly Gym court at Antioch, where the tournament will be staged Saturday. Several other county teams have also practiced on that court this week, in order to be familiar with the floor before entering the big tourney.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY THURSDAY EVENING PLEASES AUDIENCE

The junior class of Central High School has a good sense of value, and remarkable tact, as evidenced by its successful presentation of the comedy drama, "Hurry! Hurry!" at the annual class dramatics at the Opera House Thursday night.

The class first chose well and wisely when it selected a play of lighter vein, or "tired business man" type, with action quick enough and lines simple enough, to avoid boring an audience with a tiresome ordeal or strained attempt at powerful dramatics.

The class next scored, when it cast its play well, and that cast did the rest by carrying out the action in rapid manner, with very little dragging, with almost negligible prompting and with an ease and grace that distinguished the class as possessing unusual stage talent, for amateurs.

There was no monopoly of the leads, the majority of the amateurs, having parts of equal importance, with Misses Mary McFadden and Helen Hurley, probably being given the most difficult lines. Their portrayal of their parts was good, however, and they never faltered in their lines or in caring for dangerous situations.

William Miller, bore the strain of playing a character much older than himself very well indeed and Donald Currie was well adapted to his role, Frederick Schell carried his part well, and helped contribute to the humor, which was increased by Robert Balentyne, who bore the brunt of the comedy situations, and by Miss Matilda Bailey, whose vivacious portrayal added much also to the fun making. Carlton Anderson was well cast in a difficult role, which he rendered well and Miss Lois Simison cleverly executed her small part. All of the amateurs appreciated clearly.

The cast was directed by Miss Alba Junk of the faculty who seems to have been able to convey much theatrical knowledge to the youthful thespians, Robert Copeland and Miss Josephine Wolf are mentioned because the former was business manager and the latter, in charge of properties, and both probably worked harder than anybody else in the show. The performance played to a full house and will be repeated Friday night.

DO WE UNDERVALUE THE INFLUENCE OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY?

Forty years ago the writer found in a second story room on Green Street, Xenia, (the room which afterwards was the home of the Xenia Gazette for thirty years,) a small lot of books, which singular to say, was in charge of a blind man, Mr. Shields. Shortly after that a number of patriotic Xenia women associated themselves, took over these books, and for perhaps twenty years conducted Xenia's first Library Society. These good women personally did all the work of conducting the Library—a self imposed task of no small importance, to whose untiring work then we are today indebted for our magnificent Public Library. Let us ever remember that.

When Mr. Carnegie gave us our handsome Library building, one of the requirements was a guarantee of annual support. This came first by the city from the school funds, and latterly by the county since it took over the Library. Now, as City Manager S. O. Hale said in a recent article, the County Commissioners are giving all they possibly can. This meager amount is wholly absorbed in actual running expenses.

Few communities of our size are blessed with such Public Library advantages. Do we appreciate this fact? To further impress it on public attention is the object of this article.

This delightful Public Library of ours, with competent and agreeable librarians always on duty, has been open for circulation 306 days in the last year, with an average daily circulation of 108 books—largest day 310, smallest 42. Besides this there have been 6,791 readers of books in the library proper. The number of volumes in the Library is 19,937—343 of which have been added within the last year. Fifty-six of the popular periodicals (magazines) of the day, have been regularly received from all sources, and are greatly enjoyed by their readers, showing that the Library is increasingly appreciated by the public, we may state that 371 new readers have been registered within the past year. But we take cognizance of the fact that too many figures in an article are often regarded as a nuisance, and we spare our readers on this score.

Sub stations of the Library are maintained at Jamestown, Yellow Springs and Spring Valley, with fair patronage in each.

We are sure that hundreds of our citizens appreciate the Public Library more than words can tell. The love of reading enables a person to exchange the wearisome hours of life, which come to every one, for hours of delight. One old time literary character said: "If the riches of the Indies, or the crowns of all the Kingdoms of Europe, were laid at my feet in exchange for my love of Reading, I would spurn them all."

If now this Public Library is a good thing for the community let us take more interest in it—let us value it more highly—for next to excellence is the appreciation of it. To judge of the real importance of anything we must always take into consideration its effect. And, next to our churches and schools, what else tends to mental uplift, more than the Public Library?

HOW THE "FIRST LADY" OF THE LAND FILLS THE BILL.

With the close of Mrs. Harding's first year as mistress of the White House, her "record" in that exalted office is being reviewed and commented upon quite as freely as that of any official in the public eye. The position of "first lady" during the past year was unique in that American women had just come into full citizenship rights and the foremost woman of the nation needed to possess breadth of vision and judgment, combined with intellect and tact in abundance, in order to be a leader in fact as well as in name.

That Mrs. Harding was equal to the test, is acknowledged by those in position to observe closely the manner in which the duties and responsibilities entailed by her high position were borne during the first year of her regime.

The comment heard most frequently has to do with Mrs. Hardings democratic friendliness and sincerity. Never has the White House radiated such hospitality nor has the historic mansion ever been regarded as the property of the American people, save for the personal suites reserved for the president's family, in quite the degree it has been in the past year.

Indeed the first official act of Mrs. Harding was to throw open the White House grounds to the public and visitors were made welcome within hours in all the rooms save the private suites. The word "exclusiveness" was eliminated from the household vocabulary and the splendid and dignified functions given there were never in the history of the nation, more elastic in the matter of invitation lists. In Washington it is not considered illbred to drive through the porte cochere of the White House while seeing the sights, nor even to pause there a moment for a glance within, for people have been made to feel that they are welcome guests at the executive mansion.

The heavy burden of social duties has been carried gracefully by Mrs. Harding and universal admiration has been aroused by her exquisite taste in the matter of dress on all occasions, and her appreciation of artistic values in decorations.

FARM WAGES.

One of the reasons given for the need of an Agricultural Bloc in Congress has been greatly emphasized in the general condition of prices paid to the farmer for his produce. Another reason given for paying special attention to the farmer is the alarming fact of growing farm tenantry, and the refusal of the American young man to remain on the farm.

But there is another reason for giving the farm problem special attention, and that is the matter of farm wages compared with the wages paid to nearly all other forms of hand labor. Taking these figures from the United States Department of Agriculture, we find that the average farm wage for the last calendar year, 1921, was $43.32 a month without board and $30.14 a month with board. Average day-labor wages during the harvest period was $2.79 a day without board and $2.24 with board.

During the year 1921 farm wages dropped 37 per cent. Yet at the same time many classes of labor demanded that their wages remain at war levels. Compare the wage the farmer pays with the pay of many unionized groups and you have one of the reasons why the farm problem is acute. The farm labor of this country is not organized as other forms of labor are. The wages paid for fourteen hours of work are in many cases less than half the wages paid for many kinds of eight-hour work. Is it any wonder that under such conditions the average day laborer prefers the city to the country? Or that the young man looking for high wages does not look to the farm? If it is said the fault is with the farmer for not paying larger wages his answer is that he is not able to do so under present price conditions. But that answer does not do away with the fact that the low wage paid is one of the greatest reasons why young men, especially, avoid farm labor.

AND YET THEY SAY THERE IS HEATED COMPETITION FOR HIS JOB

1902--Twenty Years Ago--1922

The Powder Mills at Goes are turning out blasting powder in large quantities. There are probably a hundred workmen employed there and of recent years the plant has been doubled.

The Sale of lots in the Gal-lowsay park addition last summer promises to stimulate building in that section the coming summer and several persons, who have purchased lots are contemplating erecting residences.

Electric railroad matters have been quite lively in Clifton this week, there being two roads surveyed through the village the same day. Mr. Harry Frey is re-surveying his route, the S. and C. J. and W. The company has control of the picnic grounds and is planning to cross the river over the falls.

THE SERIOUS GIRL

I do not know why brown-eyed girls are supposed to be serious and blue-eyed ones frivolous. Most of the cleverest and most intellectual women I have met had blue or grey eyes, and yet it seems almost universally believed that the blonde type is frivolous and the brunette sober and serious.

Most serious minded girls long for marcelled hair and frivolity of mind; yet there is no type more charming than the serious type. The serious girl is so reliable. Women friends know they can trust her.

MRS. MACKAY

IS DELIGHTED WITH RESULT

Ten Years of Suffering From Stomach Trouble Ended in Thirty Days, Declares Massillon Woman. Gives Tanlac Full Credit

"I can say for Tanlac it relieved me in just a month's time of troubles that made my life miserable for ten years," said Mrs. Fannie Mackay, 202 Chestnut street, Massillon, Ohio.

"During all these years I had no appetite and everything I ate hurt me. Often after eating I had a burning sensation like fire in my stomach and was sometimes deathly sick. My liver was sluggish. I was always needing laxatives and I felt miserable all the time. It seems hard to believe that any medicine could do as much as Tanlac has done for me."

"I have just finished my third bottle now and my stomach trouble is all gone and I am able to eat things I hadn't dared touch for years. I sleep better and feel better than I ever expected to again and I am just delighted with the results I have obtained from Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, and by druggists everywhere.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

AGE OF AUTOS.

We built our towns in olden days, when horses hauled our surreys; we calmly jogged along our ways, and had few traffic worries. Oh, now and then a sporty gent would speed his sorrel trotter, and he was to the hoosgow sent, and fed on bread and water. But there was room for gig and cart, the wide streets safely held 'em; pedestrians were torn apart by wagons very seldom. We built our towns and had no thought of surging horseless wagons, of monster vans, of metal wrought, that go like flaming dragons. We built our towns, and thought our steeds would evermore go cruising, we boasted of their trotting speeds, which now seem most amusing. And now our cities we survey, all choked with honking motors; there is no path, no right of way, for inoffensive voters. The crowding motors knock us flat when in the streets we sally, it takes a circus acrobat to cross a street or alley. And every day the crush grows worse, new cars come, sleek and chuggy; each hour some fellow strips his purse to buy a buzzing buggy. Oh, when we built our busy grads we had no dream prophetic; we thought the customs of our dads would last—a view pathetic! And now we wonder what we'll do; the outlook causes sorrow; for where today one car's in view, there will be two to-morrow.

When the raiders entered the Lenover residence, Lenover, an invalid, said "Boys, I know you are doing your duty. You've got the goods on me and there is no use kicking. I'll show you where my still is." He proceeded to lead them to the cellar and showed them his 25 gallon still.

SEVERAL INJURED IN FALL FROM LADDER

George C. Cyphers, of South Detroit Street, is in the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, suffering from severe injuries he received when he fell from a ladder while at work in the hardware department at Wright field, Tuesday.

Mr. Cyphers was standing on the ladder, inside of the building, when the ladder broke, throwing him to the floor. The other workmen did not miss him until some time later, and he was taken to the field hospital. He was found to have received the fracture of a bone in his right hip, a gash on his head, and other injuries about the head. He was later taken to the Dayton hospital, where he is recovering, his injuries not being thought serious.

FORGERY CHARGED AGAINST RESIDENT OF GRENE COUNTY

Willie Wood, 40, of near Cedarville is held in the county jail awaiting arraignment on a charge of forgery, following his arrest, Thursday night by the sheriff and deputies.

Wood is charged with passing a check for $70.65 on the H. E. Schmidt & Co., grocery, South Detroit Street, Saturday night, with the forged signature of S. S. Dean prominent farmer of near Xenia.

The check was drawn on the Commercial & Savings Bank of this city, and made out to David Brown, and endorsed with that name. The signature of S. S. Dean was said to be a good forgery, but the forger erred in selecting the bank, as Mr. Dean does not have an account in the Commercial & Savings institution.

Wood said he had received the check in payment for baling, some hay for Mr. Dean, when he cashed the check in payment for a small supply of groceries, Saturday night. When arrested Thursday, however, he told authorities that he had not received the check from Mr. Dean, but had purchased it from a man on Main Street, on front of the Orpheum Theater, Saturday afternoon for $70. Confusion regarding the name of the man from whom he said he obtained the check made authorities suspicious.

Wood will probably be arraigned on the charge of forgery before Magistrate J. E. Jones, Friday afternoon.

GOVERNOR TO NAME
OHIO'S GREATEST HERO

Columbus, March 17.—Governor Davis has been requested by the disabled American veterans of the world war society to name Ohio's greatest world war hero. The ex-soldier, designated by the governor, it is said, will be selected by the society as head of a delegation of ex-service men who will attend the disabled veterans' annual national convention at San Francisco June 26-30.

Governors of other states have received a similar request. It is planned to have the men thus chosen by the various governors to take part in the "living hall of fame" scheduled as a feature of the convention.

CLAIM EXPOSURE TO DISEASE; FREED

Springfield, March 17.—Claiming that they had been exposed to smallpox, three youths arrested by police for car breaking were let loose, when officials at the detention home and county jail refused to receive them. The boys were Gus Bauer, 19, Christy Bauer, 15, and Albert Bauer, 17, brothers of 239 East Columbia Street, each signing confessions, admitting the charge for which they were arrested.

The boys stated when taken to headquarters that a man staying at their house, was broken out with smallpox and that they were exposed to the disease.

"CAP" STUBBS—Gee! Tippie's Mad!

Today's Talk
by George Matthew Adams

THINGS AS THEY ARE
If we would accept more things as they are, we would be much happier. There are many things that cannot be changed, that become a part of the permanent record of our lives. So that to dispute with inevitable happenings is to steal on the time and chance that belong to us.

We accept most of the things that are self-evident—like our faces, our bodies, and our parents. Our fortune lies within untold, unworked-out affairs. The failures of other men spread before us as fields for our determined endeavor.

I have a friend who has brooded for twenty years over a misfortune that came in early life. And now the shadows have begun to lengthen and his life is nearly spent. And his misfortune was no greater than comes to most of us at some time or other.

Take things as they are—and as they come. Work them out the best you know—and pass on.

FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unsightly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind Othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength Othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from your druggist and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.

ACID IN STOMACH
SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we cravate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash, or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Do You Play Auction Bridge?

Come on in. The Game is fine.
They all are doing it.

"Never know good hands, or poor ones, The credit lies in playing each hand properly."

The element of luck is largely decreased in Auction with the use of the "Compass" or trays which give more opportunity or scope for science in the declaration and play from the same hands or cards.

How the Board and the Tricks are Placed on the Table.

In "Compass" all rules and laws prevail as in Auction. Before beginning to play, Tray No. 1, (see number on back of tray or board) is placed in the center of No. 1 table, with the arrow pointing north, as printed on the tray to indicate the dealer. The tray must remain on the table during the play of the hand and until it is used as hereafter described.

Odd Number of Tables Best

There should be at least five or more tables in play at a time. An odd number of tables is preferable as then the trays (after use) are passed one way and the east and west players move the other. When an even number of tables are in play and when half the number of moves have been made, then the players sit still until two rounds have been played (the trays having been moved after each round). Then the east and west move to the next table and finish the play of trays.

The game consists of regular Auction bridge players at a multiple or number of tables. For instance, twenty-four tables would start with one tray for each table the number of which tray should correspond to the number of the table. Or say nine tables would play twenty-seven deals or trays, having three deals or trays (called a frame) on each table.

The "Paine" tray is a square device with four pockets in which the four hands are kept, enabling the several north players to use the same hands and the south players the same and so on.

The players do not throw their cards to the center of the table as in most card games, but as in duplicate whist, each player places his card, as he plays it, on the table in front of him, and turns it face downward as soon as the winner of the trick turns his card, and the cards of that trick must not be seen again (the trick is their said to have been turned quitted).

As each succeeding card is turned, it should be placed so as to overlap the card previously played, thus retaining the cards in exact order in which they were played. The winners of the trick place their cards, as they turn them down, perpendicularly to the edge of the table nearest them; the losers, on the contrary, place their cards horizontally.

When the deal (thirteen tricks) has been played, the four hands should each be separately shuffled, and each player's cards slipped in to the pocket of the tray directly in front of him (the arrow must always point north), thus carefully retaining the identity of the hands, and in the order and position in which they were held by the players.

This "Compass" game enables a comparison to be made, as no other mode of play possibly can give.

A Laws and Rules are used in the "Compass" game as in straight Auction save that the Rubber is not counted 125 points are added in honor column for each game made in one deal, the same being the goal and no Rubbers played.

Etiquette plays a most important part at the card table and to offend against etiquette is far more serious than to offend against a law; for in the latter case the offender is subject to the prescribed penalties; in the former his adversaries have no redress.

In bidding the declarations should be made in a simple manner, thus: "One spade," "one no-trump," or "pass" or "No Double." They should be made orally and not by gesture. Aside from his legitimate declaration, a player should in no way indicate the nature of his hand or his pleasure or displeasure at a play, a bid or a double.

A player should not play a card with such emphasis as to draw attention to same.

There are many conventions and many localisms that creep into the game, but the author finds the experts use but few and therefore none are given.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. What is meant by "in"?

A. "In" in circulation. The cards that have not been played.

Q. What card is called the Knave?

A. The Jack of any suit.

Q. What are weak suits?

A. Those suits in which tricks are very improbable.

Q. What is unblocking?

A. Playing the high cards of partner's long suit in order to get out of his way. This is done when your holding is shorter in the suit than your partner's and your cards might win the trick and take the lead from him disastrously, thereby shutting out the chance of bringing in his long suit.

Laying Hens Must Have Egg Mash and Scratch Feeds

It takes the combination to produce eggs. The old idea of feeding grains alone has been proved wrong. Grains are fattening and heat producing, but contain only a few of the ingredients necessary for egg-making.

In the Vitality Scratch Feed we sell, are combined, as economically as possible, all the body-building materials. In Vitality Egg Mash are egg-making ingredients, such as dried buttermilk, meat scraps, bone meal and finely ground alfalfa meal.

We know that these two high quality feeds will positively increase the egg production of your hens at a profit.

TRACTION LINE NOW IS BELIEVED DOOMED

Springfield, March 17.—Hope that the Springfield and Washington traction line would be kept in operation was believed lost when members of the Chamber of Commerce committee on saving the road will report to the directors of the chamber that there is no possible way of doing so.

Roscoe Pierce, chairman of the committee said Thursday, that there is no chance of keeping the cars in operation between Springfield and South Charleston. Floyd Baker, operator and part owner of the line has made application to the state public utilities commission for permission to discontinue service and as soon as the request is granted, the cars will stop.

It is thought that a better and more practical means of transportation between the two places will be developed, as he result of the action. The action taken Friday will be the last effort to keep the road in operation.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

BY
MRS. GEORGE ELLIOTT M'CORMICK

The official call for the Ohio federation's first spring conference of 1922 has just been issued by Mrs. Louis E. Burgner, Oberlin, vice president of the Middle-North district. Willard federated club women are to be the hostesses April 7 and 8 at the United Brethren church. All club women, federated or not federated, are invited to attend. The conference is to open at 1:30 p. m. April 7. A banquet and reception in the evening will be followed by an interesting program. The morning session April 8 will open at 9 o'clock. Reports of clubs are limited to two minutes and those of federations to five. A conference of musicians is to be conducted at the luncheon hour April 8. Every club in the district is expected to send its year book for the use of the reciprocity committee.

Willard club women will entertain visitors and delegates over night at their homes. Tickets for the banquet will be $1.50 and for the luncheon seventy-five cents. Because the committee on arrangements must guarantee the number of covers for the banquet and luncheon not later than April 4 no requests for reservations will be honored after that date, it is announced. Mrs. Leon Matthews, Willard should be notified as to the number of reservations as early as possible.

All clubs in the district are asked to send their delegates instructed how to vote on the question, "Shall the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs build a soldiers' memorial on the site of Camp Sherman?"

Willard, which is one of the most enterprising of Ohio's little club cities, may be reached by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; a bus line running from Norwalk and Shelby connecting at Norwalk with the Cleveland, Southwestern & Lake Shore Electric line, and a B. & O. connection from Monroeville.

Importance of Club Women.

It is not the director of press for the Ohio federation that this column is conducted, it is for all of the club women in Ohio, and they should take advantage of it because it is one of the vital departments of the state. Importance of this department is stressed editorially in the March number of the General Federation News, and the brief article is reproduced here with a view to building up a newsy Ohio federation column through the aid of those who can possibly be enlisted. The General Federation News editorial follows:

"Are you making your state press and publicity chairman a well-known institution by having her name and address appear prominently on every bit of printing your federation is sending out? Does her name appear as an officer on your state, district and county club letter heads? If not, please dear madam state president, instruct your printing committee never again to send out a piece of printed matter without listing your club 'mouthpiece.' Why continue to give publicity to every worker but your publicity worker? Make her name well known to all of your club women and see how much more publicity club work you will receive."

Industrial and Social Department

Topics for study and investigation under the head of "Institutional Relations" have been prepared by Mrs. Walter E. Schutt, No. 1828 east 81st Street, Cleveland, chairman of the state federation's industrial and social committee. She is anxious that every club have at least one program if not more, on this department. Her topics, which will build up a fine afternoon's program embracing city, county, and state institutions for the care of the sick, infirm, blind, insane, feeble-minded and criminal, follow:

"Care and Training of the Blind,"

"Care and Training of Feeble Minded," "Housing and Care of the Infirm and Sick," "Care and Training of the Defective Delinquents," "Care and Training of the Delinquent Women and Girls," "The Indeterminate Sentence and Parole," "The Honor System," "Rights of Prisoners to Vocational Training," "The Need of Separate Houses of Detention for Persons Awaiting Trial," "The Abolition of County Jails and the Substitution of Farm Colonies," "Payment of a Wage to Prisoners," "Psychiatric Examination and Classification of Prisoners" and "Social Development of Prisoners."

Chicago, March 17.—Despite rumored threats of violence if they continue their investigations members of the special grand jury today continued their work of probing criminal charges arising out of the recent acquittals of labor leaders in trials here.

States Attorney Robert B. Crowe likewise declared he would not allow threats made against his life or the threat of Judge John J. Sullivan to hold him in contempt of court to interfere with his conduct of the investigation. Judge Sullivan charged that statements made by Crowe were prejudicial to the interests of defendants on trial in his court and threatened contempt proceedings.

Did Calumet Increase

The Calumet Baking Powder Company gives out a very enthusiastic report on its newspaper advertising for 1921:

"The business of the Calumet Baking Powder Company showed good gains for 1921 as compared with 1920, which was the biggest in the history of the company. We have gone ahead aggressively with our advertising activities, and particularly with daily newspapers. In some sections, sales ran 40 per cent ahead of 1920."

"As to the immediate future, we can only say that we have released a new advertising campaign in the daily newspapers, and that we expect the close of this year to show wider margins of increase in sales, than have ever been shown."

And Greene County was no laggard. Her record of increases was up to others. Only Gazette and Republican Advertising was used.

BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB TO BECOME NATIONAL IN SCOPE

The Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club, which was organized in the city several weeks ago, will soon become a part of the national federation according to the action taken by members at the regular meeting of the club members held at the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday night.

The growth and activity of the club is thought to warrant the action, with the ultimate view of becoming more successful by being recognized by the state and national organizations. The step was taken by the local club, following the meeting, held in Springfield last week, which several of the Xenia club members attended.

The business meeting and program, Thursday night followed a St. Patrick's dinner, at the Chamber of Commerce, and was one of the largest, and most enthusiastic of the club sessions.

The supper served by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany, was cleverly carried out, the St. Patrick's idea predominating in the decorations, and other appointments. A program of old Irish melodies, sung by a chorus composed of the club members, and the reading of Barrie, an Irish playlet, by Miss Jean B. Elwell, composed the program.

Plans for the summer are under way by the members, a hiking club being organized among a large number. It was decided Thursday evening, that only one club meeting would be held each month hereafter.

Crepe marocain in chic porcelain blue is the material used, and a belt of shiny blue cabochons relieves the plainness of the frock, which with its short sleeves, low rounded neck and shapely little pocket with graceful monogram, is exceedingly youthful in effect. The skirt is made with a deep hem which meets the line of the cape in a stiff little upstanding fold.

Cedarville College Notes

The Rangers Club of Cedarville College visited the Pitchin and Selma High Schools Friday, giving their first program in the afternoon at Pitchin and the evening entertainment at Selma.

A large number of the students hiked to the cliffs Monday night for a steak roast. Everyone had a very good time.

Since the Junior Class play which was given here last Tuesday evening was such a great success, the members of that class decided to give it in some of the nearby towns. Last Saturday night they gave it at Spring Valley and Tuesday evening at Jeffersonville. Both audiences enjoyed the play very much.

Helen Davis, of Dayton, a former student of Cedarville College is visiting relatives here.

The Wilberforce Orchestra gave an entertainment in the U. P. Church Tuesday evening for the benefit of raising money to rebuild one of their college dormitories which was recently burned down.

Miss Lois Cummings was the week end guest of Miss Ruth McPherson, of Dayton. Both are students of Cedarville College.

Miss Ethel Brand, the professor of English and French in the college has been quite ill for several days.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

YOU SHOULD BE HAPPY AT YOUR HOUSEKEEPING

A Reader Friend who signs herself "Unhappy Housekeeper," has written to ask me this question: "What do you think makes a housekeeper happiest?"

My correspondent then goes on to say that she is not happy in her housework—that she drags from task to task with a leaden heart and, on most days, finds herself worrying over something her husband or children have said to her. "I hear people talk of 'enjoying life,'" she finishes her letter, "but guess I'm too morbid or sensitive, or something, to enjoy life. It isn't that I'm overworked; for, my children help me all they can when high school is out. It's just that I seem to brood over things so easily."

Now, Reader Friends, this letter proves a point I am always fond of making—a point I have made repeatedly in this column; the point that a housekeeper needs a gripping interest outside of her housework, to keep her happy.

And it doesn't matter much what that interest is, so long as it is a thrilling one to that particular housekeeper! Some women find this absorbing interest in planning their flower gardens all winter and executing those plans in summer. Some women find it in making their own and their children's clothes. To other women, this enveloping interest lies in entertaining—in planning parties and putting the plans through. Still others find it in club life, or in the work of some charitable organization.

Whether we realize it or not, we cannot be happy if we do not have a Dream. And by "A Dream," I mean some goal to strive toward—something that will give our Ambition full play.

So, if you want my answer to the question, "What do you think makes a housekeeper happiest?" here it is: "Having an Ambition!"

The woman who drags about her housework with no thought beyond the pots and pans, is bound to have a leaden outlook. But she who has time to spend on some occupation dear to her heart—she is the happy woman.

And, just incidentally, an ambition makes all the difference in the world in a woman's looks. Have you never heard the remark, "No, she's not beautiful, but she has so much expression that she seems beautiful." It is a Dream that gives you this keen look. Only Ambition can make a "live wire" of you.

So, when the Reader who wrote me the above quoted letter, reads this article, I hope she will do as follows: Take a steaming hot cup of coffee, curl herself up in one corner of her davenport, and ask herself what interests her most in life beside her family and home. If her answer is, "I don't know," then begin a series of investigations to find out what proves of interest. For instance, try weaving. Many a woman has fairly wrapped herself up in the art of weaving, beginning by buying a simple hand loom on which she could make small pieces such as table covers, lengths for a hand-bag, or pillow-tops, then, later on, saving her money to buy one of the expensive foot looms on which rugs and portieres may be woven.

But whatever you choose—choose it right away! Plunge into an interest, and you will be caught on the tide of it and swept on to the sea of contentment.

Tomorrow—if You Can Make a Good Boiled Custard.

HELEN HUNTER'S HUSBAND

BY JANE THELPS

HOME AND FORGIVENESS

Horace Barnes had been tried and sentenced to a number of years for forgery. No one else had been implicated. In the set that had received him his trial and sentence had been the chief topic of conversation. But now that, it was over, he had fair to be forgotten. Had he used his cleverness to earn an honest living he would have succeeded, for he undoubtedly was clever. But like all such men he overreached himself at last.

Jack Hunter worked steady and quietly, missing Helen, yet enjoying his books and magazines. It had been a long while since he had had time to read. He was not disturbed about Helen. She was safe with his mother, yet as the days and weeks went by he missed her more and more. Finally he sent for her.

"Jack wants me to come home!" she told Mrs. Hunter gleefully.

"Of course he does, dear! But how I shall miss you. The house will seem very quiet and somber when you are gone."

Mrs. Hunter had wondered a bit at Jack's willingness to let Helen remain with her so long, the while she rejoiced to have her. And she had told the truth when she said she would miss her. Helen's gay, childish ways had been delightful in the quiet old farmhouse; her eagerness to learn, her respectful yet loving attitude toward her husband's mother and won a love in return. A mother's love for a daughter.

Jack met Helen at the station.

"It's time you came back!" he said as he held her off to look at her. "You look like a dairy maid!" her bright eyes, and pink cheeks warranting the assertion.

"It's been early to bed and early to rise, you know, Jack," she returned, clinging to him.

He had dinner ready to put on the stove when they arrived at the apartment, and Helen, yielding to his wish that she rest and let him wait upon her did so, a happy smile curling her lips.

After dinner they talked. Helen reiterated her promises that she would be a good wife, that she would not gamble, but would help him save for a home. And Jack told of his plans. Finally he took her in his arms and when he released her, their peace had been made for all time, no matter what little disagreements might arise.

Not that either expected to change entirely, and at once, but that each was willing to do their part as best they could.

"You'll have to be awfully patient with me, I expect," Helen said, as she snuggled in his arms.

"I intend to be!" he replied, kissing her.

Nell Layton came in and exclaimed at Helen's looks.

"I think I will go to the country if it is such a beautifier!" she exclaimed.

It's the rest Helen had, as much as anything else. You girls sit up all night, then have to take your roses out of the rouge pot. Every time I catch Helen doing it I shall send her back to mother."

"I'll go any time!" Helen replied, then went off into an eulogy of Jack's mother that must have made the old lady's ears burn.

"But what did you do with yourself on a farm?"

"Oh, I kept pretty busy," Helen had no idea of giving away her surprise. "I trotted about after mother Hunter, fed the chickens, went to the Post Office for Jack's letters, and oh, I managed to keep going most of the time."

"Isn't it terrible about Horace Barnes? They sent him up you know. I suppose Jack has told you."

"Yes, it is dreadful! And, Nell, please don't let's talk about him. I came pretty near getting into trouble through him. I want to forget him. "I don't blame you! Well, mum's the word from now on."

Helen really felt uncomfortable when Barnes name was mentioned, and so, she also imagined, did Jack, although he had said nothing to that effect. But unpleasant episodes in one's life are better forgotten as soon as possible, so Helen thought.

"I came so near losing Jack because of him! And Barnes is in jail. What a fool I was—what a blind, silly fool," Helen said to herself. To Jack: "I will get the breakfast. You have been taking care of yourself long enough."

If Jack wondered a bit at his wife's willingness to rise in time, he said nothing; perhaps laid it to her having risen so early on the farm.

Mrs. Charles Did the Same Thing

"I told the Mister I wasn't going to kill myself again this Spring during house cleaning if I never got it cleaned," Mrs. Charles said to Mrs. Ames.

"I remember last Fall the grocer sold me several bars of R. N. M. White Naptha Soap, a package of Rub-No-More Washing Powder and a can of Spotless Cleanser," Mrs. Ames replied. "I was through with my cleaning from cellar to garret in no time—and I didn't kill myself either. I'm using the same things for my cleaning now and I'm almost through."

"If you can do your work so easily and quickly with Rub-No-More products, I can too!" answered Mrs. Charles. And she did the same thing.
